Summer Programs Policies

REGISTRATION POLICIES A completed application for each camper with full payment (made by check or credit card) is necessary to process a camper's registration.

DEPOSITS Full payment is required with registration for the program(s) of your choice. This includes a $150 non-refundable and non-transferable application fee.

REFUND POLICY If a cancellation occurs prior to February 28, 2010, monies less than $150 application are refundable. After June 18, 2010, there will be no tuition refund in the event of a withdrawal from any summer program. Partial tuition may be refunded if written cancellation is received prior to June 18, 2010. Phone cancellations are not accepted.

Space is limited; therefore, registration will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

North Shore Country Day School and the Summer Programs reserve the right to cancel any program if unforeseen circumstances occur. All money will be refunded on a prorated basis.

While North Shore Country Day Summer Programs will make every attempt to accommodate all children, the summer programs will not accept children who are (1) of danger to themselves, (2) of danger to others, or (3) a disruption to the normal activities making it unreasonably difficult for other children to enjoy summer programs. Additionally, any of the above reasons will be grounds for dismissal from camp. A parent/guardian is strongly urged to discuss with the director any special conditions or circumstances involving their child prior to registration.

In compliance with the North Shore Country Day School policies, all information requested on your child's health form must be completed before your child can attend camp. Health forms must be returned by May 15, 2010, in order for full processing and to maintain accurate records.

Neither North Shore Country Day School nor the Summer Programs provide accident insurance for campers.

By signing this application, you grant North Shore Country Day School and the Summer Programs the right to use pictures and any other form of media including images of your child involved in program activities in Summer Programs or North Shore Country Day School publications and marketing materials.

Parents are urged to mark all clothing, towels, etc. with nametags to insure complete identification of all items.

Participants are discouraged from bringing unnecessary personal items, and, in particular, anything of value such as jewelry or large amounts of money. No personal radios or electronic games are allowed on the campus during program times. Neither North Shore Country Day School nor the summer programs is responsible for lost or stolen items.

I consent to my child's participation in the Summer Programs. I further consent for my child to leave the North Shore Country Day School site to participate in authorized Summer Programs trips and to ride in authorized vehicles for the purpose of transportation in connection with the Summer Programs. I acknowledge that participation in the Summer Program includes inherent risks. I expressly assume the risk for any and all injuries (including death), illnesses, damage or loss which may result from my child's participation in Summer Programs activities. I hereby voluntarily release and discharge North Shore Country Day School, its agents and employees from any and all claims for injury, illness, damage or loss which my child may suffer as a result of his/her participation in the Summer Programs, other than by injury, illness, damage or loss which arises from the gross negligence or willful and wanton misconduct of any agent or employee of the North Shore Country Day School.

By signing this application, the camper's parents or guardians agree to the Summer Programs' policies and consents and waivers set forth on this application.
